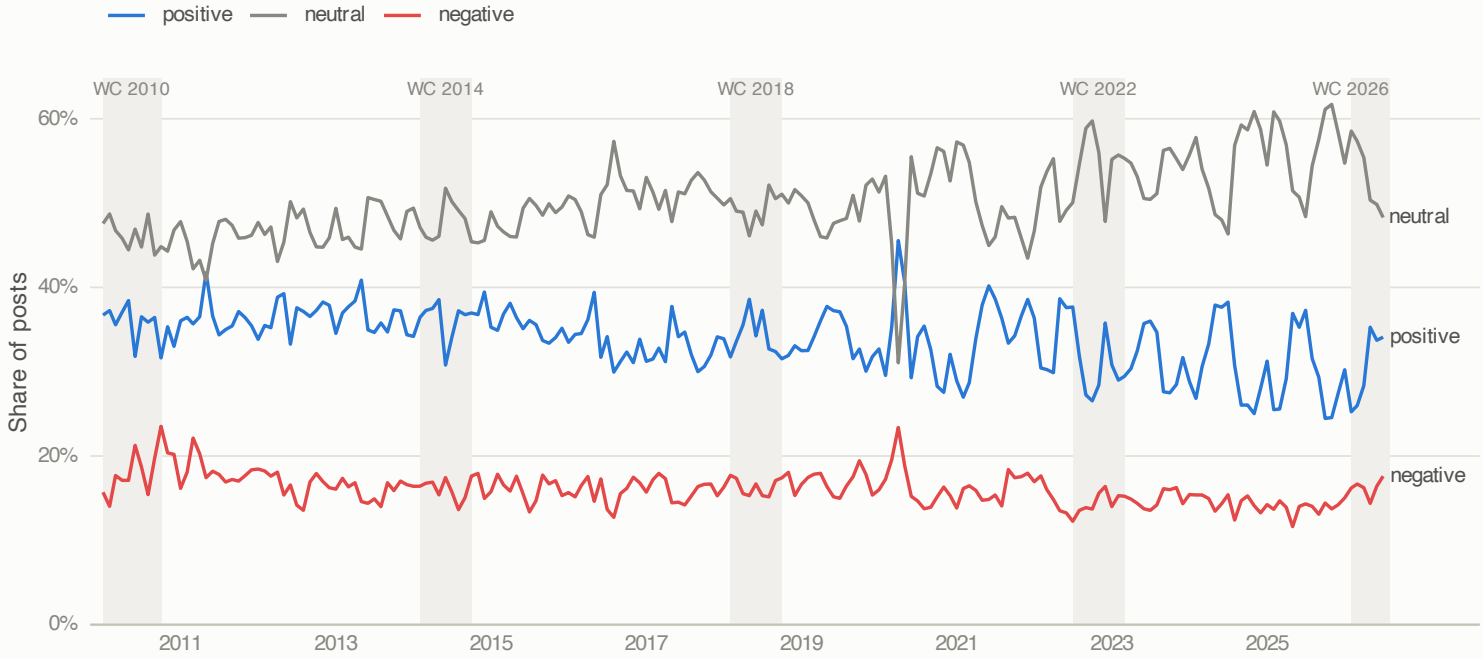
Positive, neutral and negative valence of post titles, 2010–2026

Monthly share of posts by VADER label (positive > 0.05, negative < –0.05); shaded: World Cup period bins



All 1,302,021 posts (post_sentiment_label): the valence of the title's wording, not the author's sentiment.
VADER gives many titles that a reader sees as neutral a positive or negative label (validation against one human coder: 56 % agreement, κ = 0.24; codebook §8.2).
